CONNECT

Bring my business data into Domo from anywhere.

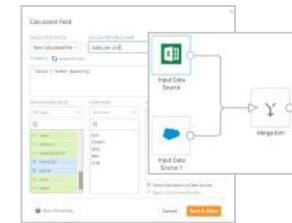

Domo has developed hundreds of pre-built connectors that allow you to securely connect directly to all your sources of business data—so the information you care about comes to you, instead of the other way around.

PREPARE

Get my data ready for prime time.

Transforming data used to be impossible for all but the technical elite. With Domo, now everyone has the tools they need. Domo enables you to combine data the way you want, easier than ever before.

VISUALIZE

Tell stories with my data.

When you bring your data into Domo, you have to freedom to visualize and organize it any way you want. And with Domo apps, your data can answer critical business questions in ways the world has never seen before.

ENGAGE

Collaborate around insights and share information.

Domo makes business collaboration simple. Instead of having business discussions in hallways and email threads, Domo enables you to have conversations and share insights, right where your data lives.

OPTIMIZE

Discover insights that drive better decisions.

With a variety of analysis tools and intelligent notifications, Domo's platform delivers insights that drive better results.

Finally. Your entire business at your fingertips.
